FEMALE COURAGE.

Great is the 'Diana' of Wisconsin .- The Manitowoo County Herald of the 12th inst.,

Miss Emma Thaver, a young lady of fifen years of age, living at Rowley's Bay, in this county, while walking on the beach on the morning of the first day of May, anw n wolf a short distance off watching a deer CLIPPER, which he had driven into the lake; and with a courage rarely equalled, drove him away. and wading into the lake, brought the deer on shore by the ear. After petting him a short time, the ungallant fellow made an attempt to get away, and finally earried mut-ters so far as to knock her down, and that her dress; when becoming justly incensed at such treatment, she took a stone and dashed out his brains. The wolf was all the time standing by, a silent spectator of the fight, in which he took no further part, than by occasionally showing a formidable ow of white teeth.

It is safe enough to predict that if this girl lives a few years more she will be able to whip her weight in wild cats,' give some young 'Badger' the heart ache, or what is perhaps a great deal better, preside with grace and dignity over the destinies of some

During the day, some consult their own interests by advancing mine. French soldiers, on their way to a wine shop. in passing a crowd of Romans who were listening to a street preacher, interrupted and insulted them by shouting Vive la Re-publice, Vive la Liberte! and derided some Roman Soldiers who were in the crowd 5v calling them Soldiers du Pope.

After the service was through the Romans went to the wine shop to ask some explanation of the Frenchmen; and this, of course, led to an open quartel. The patrols which were sent to quell the distorbance, joined the combatants, and the row was not suppressed until four Fronchmen had been killed. Seven Roman soldiers and twenty-five citizens were seized and taken to prison by the French. The Romans are revenging themselves by assessinating the French soldiers in the streets; two of whom had been killed and a third wounded, since the affray, and the work was destined to go on.

In the meantime the French General was taking measures to exasperate the Remans still further, by threatening great severity against his prisoners, and by ordering two baualians of Roman soldiers to be removed from the city, and which had been done even against the remonstrance of the Minister of War; and in consequence, the Minister had sent in his resignation. The French were anticipating an insurrection and preparing for it, and the Papal Government was said to be greatly troubled by the prices-$15.00 pr gross or $1,50 a dozen. aspect of affairs.
